Dewey-Humboldt Mayor John Hughes endorses Steve Zipperman for Arizona State Senate, Legislative District (LD)-1

Dewey-Humboldt is a small town of approximately 4,000 people in Yavapai County. One of the “Quad Cities”, it was incorporated in 2004 with the concern that growth in the area would endanger the low density, rural nature of the area.

John Hughes is an Arizona native, fourth generation cattle rancher, and a small business owner. He is the current Mayor of Dewey-Humboldt, having served four years on the City Council.

After considering his options, John is endorsing Steve Zipperman for the Arizona State Senate representing Legislative District (LD)-1, Yavapai County. John and Steve are both Constitutional Conservatives concerned about the direction of the country and the State.

Together they fight for:

- Representation and respect for rural Arizona cities, towns, counties, and Tribes.
- Representation and respect for small business owners in Arizona.
- The end of the administrative State where laws and regulations are made by unelected bureaucrats, rather than elected officials.

Final 2/25/22

- Strong 2nd amendment rights.
- Small Government and low taxes.
- Election Integrity.
- Limited emergency powers by elected leaders and no “mandates” (dictatorial powers)
- All other freedoms enumerated within the Constitution and our rights, as granted by God.

About Steve Zipperman

- Steve Zipperman is an American patriot first and foremost. He believes our Declaration of Independence and Constitution are the reason for America’s success and freedom. This belief has driven him to serve his country from a young age.
- At age seventeen, Steve enlisted in the U.S. Army and patched up our Vietnam War heroes at Walter Reed Medical Center. After three years of improving and comforting the lives of our wounded warriors, Steve began a career in business and law.
- He obtained his Real Estate Broker’s license in 1983, and then Mr. Zipperman owned and operated a successful real estate office for several years. Steve knows firsthand that getting the government out of the way is the key to everyone’s prosperity.
- Steve practiced law for 28 years after putting himself through law school. He ran his own law firm, negotiated the resolution of hundreds of cases, and gained invaluable experience in all aspects of real estate and business law. He will use this experience to craft laws to keep Arizona free!
- Steve and his capable wife, Sharon, currently volunteer their time teaching “Constitution 101,” based on Hillsdale College’s Curriculum, to hundreds of citizens within the community. He also proudly served as First Vice-Chair to the Republican Party of Yavapai County.
- This campaign is not about Steve it’s about our country. It’s about citizens like you. For too long, Democrats have crafted un-American policies and regulations. It’s time for real American Patriots to take the lead. Arizona’s 1st Senate District needs capable, freedom-loving constitutionalists like Steve Zipperman providing leadership in our government.
